

Duccio Armenise - Just the Hope - Himraseas 2007

*Every day it seems the same
There's no shame and no fame
I can see just the shade as I fall in blue
Cause this life seems so untrue.*

*And I can't stand that door forever locked
To ignore everyone who ever Knocked
And I'm here all alone with my fears
So sick and tired to waste my tears
So I go and find...*

*Just the hope to live this life
I take my doubts and leave behind
Stand up and begin to walk
To change the rules of this world.*

*One more time gettin' drunk to see the world disappear
How long have I been here?
But I know there's still a light burnin' in my core
So won't give up, and I go open that door
And you'll find..*

*So when you're lost in your pain
And think every thing is in vain
Just remember there is someone inside
Who needs you don't be blind!*

Alla mia dolce Fabiola
